Antonis Livieratos is a veteran musician of the alternative and of the electronic Greek scene, an art figure deeply respected in Greece. He started recording in 1997 and since then he has released 10 albums either as a solo artist, or with Chapter 24, or in collaboration with other solo artists (check Sotiris Debonos).

In the past he has been a member of two important (and still active) groups of the alternative Greek scene: Sigmatropic and Illegal Operation. He teamed up with Sigmatropic once again a few years ago and is still working with the group as a keyboardist.

He is the lead member and key songwriter of the group Dr.Atomik. He has released two albums with them. The group is currently at hiatus.

He has composed music for short films and for theatre performances.

"Ovolos Sto Stoma" – a 10 album track with songs in the Greek language – is the second solo Livieratos album released by Puzzlemusik
