The Armenian offers a first taste of “Far”, the sixth album by Yiannis Kassetas, coming two years after the artistically and commercially successful “Lucid Dream”. “The Armenian” is a composition of international standards with a distinctly oriental flavor, yet infused with contemporary New York jazz style. Still, the personal touch of the composer / arranger is evident. Over the years Yiannis has evolved to perhaps the most important jazz composer of his generation.

The cover of this digital single was specifically designed for the occasion by Katerina Zamberis, while on the track - as well as in the album that will follow – the featuring musicians are:

Costis Christodoulou: Piano, Dimitris Papadopoulos: Trumpet, Grigoris Theodoridis: Bass, Dimitris Klonis: drums and Yiannis Kassetas himself in tenor and baritone saxophone (as well as in compositions/arrangements).

Recorded, Mixed and Mastered at Artracks studios, Athens, Greece by George Priniotakis
